More than just a name

Palace View boasts some of the best views of the Lambeth Palace – the residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury – and Palace of Westminster. One can say your kitchen clock is actually Big Ben, not your oven clock.

Architecture by White Ink

The development is arranged in a horse-shoe formation to optimise the potential of the tight urban site and maximise the natural light to the apartments. Carefully chosen materials of charcoal grey brick and copper-effect metal cladding create a modern yet sensitive intervention within the historic surroundings.
